Leaders 'Hold the Story' for their organizations

October 16th, 2024

3:00 PM -3:50 PM | 131 Behavioral Sciences Building

Rico Munn

Chief of Staff, Office of the President, Colorado State University

There is a difference between being "The Boss" and being a leader. Leadership requires an understanding of self that connects to a deep understanding of the context where you seek to lead. In this dialogue, Rico will share a six part framework he has developed for "holding the story" of leadership and how that shapes the nature of your leadership and the possibilities for your leadership context.
